Re: United States v. Brijesh Goel, No. 22-CR-396-PKC

Dear Judge Castel:

I write to apologize to the Court. It is my fault that we did not respond to the Government's April 7 letter requesting a pretrial schedule before this Court's order. I told my co-counsel and our client that I would submit our opposition. I was in Fiji at the time, in advance of an oral argument before the Fiji Supreme Court on Tuesday, April 11. I had planned to make the submission, but I mismanaged my schedule. I am so sorry for my mistake in not submitting our opposition earlier. I thank you for the opportunity to address the Court regarding this matter at the April 27 conference. I ask you not to visit my mistake upon my client.

Respectfully Submitted.
